About Us.

Field House Day Care Nursery Limited is situated on the corner of Munro Street/London Road in the town of Stoke. Street parking is available around the nursery.

The nursery building was built in approximately 1885, and was the home of the Fleet family.

In the early 1940's, Stoke-on-Trent City Council purchased the property from the decedents of the Fleet family and it became 'Field House Nursery School'. It stayed a statutory nursery school for 3+ children until it closed in 2002, due to amalgamating small nursery schools with the larger schools in the locality.

The Building.

The building remained derelict until after a long process of negotiation, it was purchased in September 2005 by Rob and Majella Cocks.

Once the building had been purchased, Rob and Majella identified that the building was in desperate need of some refurbishment work. The vision was to make the building modern, and go above and beyond minimum requirements, to make it the exclusive day care provision it is today, but keep the traditional feel and character of the building.

Building work started and this process took 6 months to complete. Regular dialogue with all statutory agencies took place, to ensure we were adhering to directives.

The Nursery Manager too up post in November 2005 and has substantially contributed to ensure the nursery is as it is today.

Nikkii has worked within the child care sector for 30 years, and has worked in various settings, before gaining the post of Deputy Head at a reputable nursery school.

She then helped to establish a supported housing company, providing supported accommodation for young people aged 16+ that had experienced being homeless/leaving care/substance misuse or had been excluded from school.

Nikkii worked to set up a training company within it, and co-ordinated a wide range of projects within Stoke/Staffordshire to engage 'hard to reach' young people and graduated as a Connexions Personal Advisor to provide career's advice and has since completed the Foundation Degree in Early Years.

Field House Day Care Nursery started from scratch in November 2005.
